

Hsi-Mei Yates will teach a two-day workshop in Chinese Brush Stroke. Day one will begin with basic brush techniques and strokes and progress on to painting pine trees - trunk, branches, needles; peony flowers, and a large bird. All levels of painters are welcome to participate and students will be able to progress at their own pace. His-Mei has recently celebrated the fifth year anniversary of Liberty Town Arts Workshop where she currently teaches and exhibits.